

COOKED BY STEAM IN THE SLEEPER

Fatal Railroad Accident at Tunnelton, W. Va. This Morning.

THOSE WHO ESCAPED SCALDING WERE CRUSHED.

U. S. Marshal Carden of Wheeling, An Unknown Man Who Was at First Thought to be Secretary of State Olney and Miss Lulu Dornaint Will Probably Die While Others are Hurt—Six Miners Killed.

Tunnelton, W. V., Sept. 27.—A Baltimore Ohio passenger grazed another on a siding destroying a sleeper this morning. The injured are:

CARDEN, U. S. marshal, of Wheeling, fatally scalded.

UNKNOWN MAN, at first thought to be Secretary of State Olney, fatally scalded.

DORNAINT, Miss Lulu, state librarian, fatally crushed.

Several others were also injured, some of them seriously. Those burned were caught in the escaping steam while the others were crushed. The passenger was not far enough in on the siding to let the other one by.

Leadville, Col., Sept. 27.—An accident occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Belgian mine, resulting in the death of six miners and the injuring of four others. The dead are:

J. H. GRAY.

JOHN HAMILL.

CLARK M'GINNISS.

JOHN BEGGS.

CHRIS PHILLIPS.

ED KUHN.

The injured are:

J. H. REYNOLDS.

JAMES BAXTER.

ALEX PARKER.

JOHN WATERS.

The men were working in a drift and slope about ten feet above the lower level. Fifty pounds of powder had been stored in that part of the mine. According to Superintendent Doddridge, he had positively forbidden more than five pounds of powder to be taken into the mine at one time, but it is known that fifty pounds was there at the time, and five or ten pounds of this was in an oil can, warming with lighted candles under it. In some manner it exploded, and the concussion set off the remaining powder. This terrific shock caused dirt to block the slope, and the men could not get out, and six of them slowly smothered to death.

As many volunteers as could be put to work began digging through the mass of dirt, and in an hour had broken through and found the miners lying along the two drifts. There were five in what is known as the Belgian drift—all dead—and four in the other, three of whom were alive.

The dead and injured were rapidly taken to the surface, and the injured were removed to the hospital. It is thought that all the injured men will recover. The men killed so far as known were all single.

IRISHMEN WANT A REPUBLIC.

England's Policy Bitterly Arraigned in the Resolutions Adopted.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—To the chorus of "God Save Ireland" the third and last day's session of the Irish National convention closed. The declaration of principles, unanimously endorsed by the convention, may fairly be taken as an expression of the attitude of the more aggressive, at least, of Irish-Americans toward the Irish question.

Nothing was done at the morning session yesterday, as the committees on national platform and resolutions were not ready to report, and a recess was taken. Promptly at 3 o'clock President Finerty rapped for order, and a photograph of the convention was taken.

O'Neill Ryan, of St. Louis, then announced he was ready to report on the national platform. The applause was deafening when Mr. Ryan took the platform. Then in a strong voice he began to read the following declaration of principles and resolutions:

The people of Ireland are a sovereign people. Ireland is by nature separate from every other country, and liberty is the birthright of her people. England's claims to authority in Ireland originated in force, and have been maintained by corruption and coercion; the title by conquest has never been perfected, inasmuch as the Irish people have continuously by constitutional agitation and revolutionary movements resisted England's power and endeavored to destroy her unlawful supremacy. Ireland is deprived of almost every civil right which the American people most dearly cherish. England has destroyed Ireland's industries and ruined her commerce; she has placed upon her statute books laws making it a crime to educate an Irish child; she burned Ireland's school-houses and destroyed her churches; she has driven into exile, or left to perish in her dungeons, thousands of men, whose only crime was love of Ireland. Every measure for the last century looking toward legislative independence of the Irish people has either suffered defeat in the commons, or been arbitrarily rejected by the lords. England has violated every treaty and broken every pledge, and with almost every year of the century she has imposed upon Ireland brutal laws of coercion and one of the most drastic character is now upon her statute books.

It has become evident after many years of earnest endeavor to obtain a measure of independence from the English government by peaceful agitation that appeals to reason for justice are futile. It is left, therefore, for the men of the Irish race to proclaim again the truth recorded by all history that the liberties of a people and the independence of a nation cannot be achieved by debate, but must be won upon the field of battle, and we declare our belief that the men of Ireland who are being driven into exile or into the graves of serfs in their native land by English misgovernment are entitled by the laws of God and man to use every means in their power to drive from their country the tyrant and usurper, and we believe that Ireland has the right to make England's difficulty her opportunity and to use all possible means to create that difficulty.

Resolved, That we earnestly protest against the continued incarceration in English prisons of Irish patriots and that the release of these men be imperatively demanded, not only by the Irish people, but by civilization.

Resolved, That this convention expresses the hope that the people of Cuba, who are struggling for political independence and the establishment of a republic, will be successful and that we extend to them our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That this convention recommends the formation of military companies wherever practicable, in order to foster and preserve the military spirit of our Irish race and to be prepared for action in the hour of England's difficulty.

It was several minutes before the demonstration which followed the reading of the declaration of principles would permit Mr. O'Connell to present the report of the committee on plan of reorganization. The report was as follows:

The new movement shall be known by the style and title of the Irish National alliance. It shall have for its object the securing of the independence of Ireland by any means within the power consistent with the laws and usages of civilized nations. The qualifications for membership shall be good moral character, birth on Irish soil or descent from Irish parentage on paternal or maternal side, or both, and the taking of the following pledge of honor: "I, _____, hereby pledge my word of honor to aid by every means within my power, in conformity with the constitution and by-laws of the Irish National alliance, in securing the independence of Ireland."

This organization shall be governed by a president, a vice-president, a treasurer and secretary, and an executive council of nine members, who shall hold office for two years or until their successors are elected and duly qualified. The president and treasurer shall be ex officio members of the executive council and where a tie may occur the president shall have the privilege of the casting vote. A two-thirds vote of the executive council shall be necessary to override any motion and act of the president of the national alliance.

The secretary shall be appointed by the president. All other officers shall be elected by the organization in regular session.

The president, vice-president and one member of the executive committee, such member to be selected by the executive council, shall be trustees of the funds of the organization.

The state organizations shall be modeled on the national, and all authority to organize must come from the national executive and no other authority to organize shall be valid.

The initiation fee shall be $1 and the dues 50 cents a quarter, payable in advance.

Each local subdivision of the Irish National alliance shall be known as a council and it shall be designated by number of charter furnished by the national executive on payment of their fees as called for in the constitution.

Each council shall transmit quarterly to the national treasury 75 per cent of all moneys received, for legitimate expenses.

Both reports were passed without a dissenting voice.

The convention then proceeded to the election of officers to preside over the destinies of the Irish National alliance. William Lyman of New York was made president, O'Neill Ryan of St. Louis was elected vice president and Senator P. V. Fitzpatrick of Chicago treasurer by acclamation. The committee appointed to nominate nine members of the alliance council reported the following, who were unanimously elected: J. J. Donovan, Lowell, Mass.; Christopher Gallagher, Minnesota; Martin Kelly, Tennessee; Captain Mangan, Wisconsin; J. Sheehy, San Francisco; J. M. Kennedy, Anaconda, Minn.; Thomas J. Dundon, Ohio; Joseph Lawler, Texas. A long list of vice presidents was named, almost every state in the Union being represented.

The election over speeches were made in response to call by President William Lyman, O'Neill Ryan, P. N. Fitzpatrick and M. V. Gannon. The convention, led by Edward Cummings, then sang "America."

William Lyman, of New York city, the new president of the Irish National alliance, was born in Ross county, Ireland, in 1853. He is a building contractor, and an energetic worker in the Irish cause. At the Chicago convention of Oct. 19, 1891, he was elected treasurer of the Irish National league.

CHAIR WORKS BURN AT MICHIGAN CITY

PETERS COMPANY PLANT DESTROYED THIS MORNING.

The Loss Will Probably be About $12,000—Fire in the Woods Near Quebec Broke Out on Monday and Fanned by a Terrific Gale Spread—Families Homeless.

Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 27.—Fire this morning destroyed the Peters Chair factory, five barns and one residence. Twelve thousand dollars will probably cover the loss.

Arthabaska, Que., Sept. 27.—Seventy men are still fighting fire in the woods on the Grand Trunk Railroad line in the direction of Doucets Landing, on the Three Rivers road. The fire began Monday morning when the sky was darkened by dense columns of smoke blown by the strongest gale felt here in years. The fire originated in the brush-wood, and was kindled by farmers clearing new land.

Monday evening the terror was redoubled here, when the heavens were lit up with flames, and a rain of cinders and sparks fell. The whole population engaged in prayer, tapers were burned at the altars in the parish church, and the priests joined in the supplications to heaven. Guards were posted all around the village, and the statues of saints were placed around the houses to turn back destruction.

The victims of the fire are homeless and begging through the country. All trains passing through the desolated region stop and the conductor blows a horn and calls out in case the people are utterly penniless. At 6 a. m. yesterday the rain began falling and the people are overjoyed, as they believe the fire can be stopped.

The area visited by the flames was one of thirty-five miles. The flames traveled from north to south from the inland forest to the St. Lawrence River. This is the order in which the fire and smoke spread: St. Celestin, Braults Mills, Aston, St. Eulalie, Bulstrode, Riviere, Noira, the outskirts of Arthabaska, the home of Hon. W. Laurier, St. Elizabeth, St. Albert, De Warwick, Kingsley Falls, and to Doucets Landing. The fire is now confined to a spot thirteen miles from this place, at St. Angle, and vegetation, including all crops, are in ashes everywhere along the Grand Trunk line. The villagers are flocking with their wives and children from all parts of Arthabaska and Three Rivers. They have lost all except life itself. Provisionally no fatalities were added to the calamity. Husbands, wives, and children all through this region, who have been separated in the conflagration, are still seeking one another. The survivors whose houses were burned are asking the Grand Trunk Railway to take them out of the fields where they are living under the shelter of blankets and board huts.

DURRANT'S ALIBI FAILS.

Cannot Prove His Whereabouts at the Time of the Murder.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 27.—The keystone in the arch of Durrant's alibi crumbled and fell yesterday. The witness upon whom the attorneys for the defense depended most to sustain their contention that Durrant was attending a lecture at Cooper Medical College at the hour when Blanche Lamont was murdered gave disappointing testimony. Dr. Cheney said he had no recollection of seeing the young medical student. Sergeant Reynolds, the police officer who conducted the search of Emanuel Church after the discovery of the bodies of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams, testified that the chisel marks found on the door leading to the belfry corresponded in size to a chisel found in a tool box in Rev. John George Gibson's study. The witness was also asked to identify a shoe supposed to have been stained with blood, which was found in the pastor's study. As Sergeant Reynolds did not know to whom the shoe belonged Sergeant Burke was called, but he was also in ignorance with regard to the ownership of the shoe.

May Put Up a Third Ticket.

New York, Sept. 27.—A third local ticket, to be placed in the field by a union composed of most of the men who were at the head of the reform movement last year will undoubtedly be the result of a conference held at the Lawyers' club yesterday. Those present were: Charles S. Fairchild, leader of the state democracy; Elihu Root, Cornelius N. Bliss, and General Samuel Thomas of the anti-Platt republicans; Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, Carl Schurz, and Jacob H. Schiff, who have been identified with the German-American reform union.

was Delayed by Fog.

Southampton, Sept. 27.—The American line steamship Paris, which was due here Wednesday, did not arrive until 7:30 yesterday. Her run from New York was slower by twenty hours than her record time. The delay, it is explained, was caused by the prevalence of heavy fogs.

New Orleans Bank Suspends.

New Orleans, Sept. 27.—A notice was posted on the door yesterday announcing the suspension of the Co-operative Banking Association. Capital stock was $100,000. The bank had but few depositors.

A MURDERER DIES ON THE SCAFFOLD

MARTIN ADAMS HANGS AT COLUMBUS OHIO.

His Crime Was the Killing of George Ohmer a Blacksmith at Cincinnati Public Sentiment at Danville is Against Hinshaw—Priest Charged With Abduction—Other Crimes.

Columbus, O., Sept. 27.—Martin Adams was hanged this morning. His crime was the murder of George Ohmer, a blacksmith, at Cincinnati. Adams died game, and the execution was a successful one.

Danville, Ind., Sept. 27.—The refusal of Rev. Mr. Hinshaw to take the witness stand and detail the occurrence of the night of the tragedy has lost him a large number of the friends he had before he announced this decision, and even his mother-in-law, who has stood by him and rendered him all the assistance within her power, was not in her usual place by his side yesterday. Prosecutor Gully went into a thorough discussion of the case from beginning to end, occupying the entire day in his argument. During his speech the large crowd was greatly moved and had to be quieted by the sheriff. As Hinshaw was being taken to the jail in the evening he was loudly hissed by the crowds collected on the streets.

Bluffed by a 16-Year-Old Girl.

Perry, O. T., Sept. 27.—Near Sweeney's Bridge, in the Kickapoo country, Jacob Jacobs leased a Kickapoo allotment. Agent Thomas held that Jacobs had no right, and sent Indian Police-men Washington and Little to dispossess him. Clara Jacobs, the 16-year-old daughter of the lessee, kept the police at bay with a revolver, declaring that she would shoot the first one that attempted to move a stick of timber or a single article from the land. At last accounts she was still in control, and officers had gone for re-enforcements.

Serious Crime.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 27.—A great sensation has been caused here by the mysterious disappearance of fifteen-year-old Maud Steidel, who stepped out of her mother's house Wednesday and has not been seen since. The mother of the girl openly accuses Father Dominick Wagner, the priest of St. Mary's parish, with having spirited her daughter away. The police and detectives also visited Father Dominick and accused him of her abduction. He denied the charge. Excitement runs high and lynching has been talked of.

IS BECOMING SERIOUS.

Trouble with Great Britain Over Venezuela Seems Very Near.

Washington, Sept. 27.—A government official said yesterday it was likely the United States would have trouble with Great Britain within ninety days over the question of the Venezuela boundary line. The unusual activity being displayed in the completion of war ships is said to be due to the prospect of a dispute between the nations.

A syndicate of Americans from Fairbault, Minn., has been granted a concession from Venezuela with the territory disputed by Great Britain. The syndicate will take possession of its concession within a month and begin its operations. If Great Britain objects Venezuela will insist that the concession is within her own territory and will protect the syndicate. At this point the United States government will demand that England submit the boundary dispute to arbitration or else the United States will act upon its own view and carry out the Monroe doctrine. It is known that instructions have already been sent to Ambassador Bayard to this effect.

Deaths from Cholera at Honolulu.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 27.—The steamer Alameda, which arrived yesterday from Australia and New Zealand by way of the Hawaiian Islands, did not stop at Honolulu. She lay outside the port an hour to land mails, but she took no passengers aboard and refused to take any mail for San Francisco. The boat which put off from the islands reported that there were about eighty-six cases of cholera on land. Forty deaths have already resulted from the disease. Of the dead three were Europeans.

Serious Defeat for Insurgents.

Havana, Sept. 27.—Reports have reached here of a serious defeat to the insurgents in the district of Ciego Avila. Colonel Aldave of the Spanish army surprised a camp of insurgents under command of Generals Roloff, Sanchez and Zayas. The loss to the insurgents in killed, wounded and prisoners is placed at 200. No details of the engagement have been received.

Governor Morrill Very Ill.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 27.—Governor Merrill, who was taken ill while at the Chickamauga celebration, has grown worse since his return to Topeka, and has left here for his Hiawatha home to rest under his physician's care. The governor is said to be a very sick man.

Michigan Has a Heavy Tax.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 27.—The state tax apportioned by the auditor general yesterday and payable in the several counties in December is the largest ever levied. It amounts to $3,013,919, and is $1,324,783 greater than last year's levy.

BEGIN TO BALLOT.

Methodists at Elgin Commence to Select Their Delegates.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 27.—The Rock River conference began to ballot for delegates to general conference yesterday, but made little progress. One secret ballot was taken amid much excitement, but an adjournment was taken before the result was announced, and as the tellers and secretary are sworn to strict secrecy the lucky candidates will not be known until today. Only one delegate can be chosen at a time, as a majority vote is required to elect. Bishop William Taylor, the famous African missionary, was a visitor at the morning session.

Tomorrow or Saturday the conference will elect the two lay delegates to the general conference. According to custom one will be selected from Chicago and the other from the country districts. Laymen think it rather one-sided that the annual conferences, in which they have no voice, should select their delegates to the general convocation. It doesn't seem right to them that the ministers should choose the lay delegates. A movement is afoot to give the laity representation in the annual conferences. As the conference progresses the fact becomes more apparent that when the preachers get a chance to speak on the question, they will vote to admit women to the general conference by a large majority. The conservative members, while willing to seat their sisters as delegates, do not believe this can be accomplished at the next general conference, for the reason that the constitution must first be changed. That done, they say, there is no doubt the woman can come in 1900, the next meeting. The radical side, however, favors an assault on the conference next spring.

DAMAGED BY FIRE.

Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce Scorched—Loss $60,000.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 27.—The Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce caught fire yesterday and for a time it seemed that the building was doomed. The fire was brought under control by 9 o'clock, however, and the actual damage confined to the upper floors, although the entire building was drenched. The Chamber of Commerce was a handsome five-story structure at Third street and Fourth Avenue south, two blocks from the milling district. It was erected in 1884 at a cost of $180,000. It is in the center of the grain trade, the Corn Exchange and Flour Exchange occupying adjacent corners. The Chamber has 650 members. The building has long been too small for its business and the opportunity will now be embraced to rebuild and enlarge.

The loss is estimated at $30,000 on the building and $30,000 on the contents. The insurance on the building is $125,000. There could not have been a more unfortunate time for the fire, as the grain trade is at its busiest. Temporary arrangements for trading have been made in the Flour Exchange Building.

CALLS AN EXTRA SESSION.

Gov. Culberson Determined There Shall Be No Prize Fight in Texas.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 27.—Governor Culberson has kept his threat to call an extra session of the legislature if necessary to stop the proposed Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize-fight set for Oct. 31 at Dallas. The governor has been indefatigable for the last week looking up the laws on the subject and, with Attorney General Crane's help, made an exhaustive study of the question. Last evening every member in the cabinet was in consultation with the governor until 11:30. At midnight the governor issued a proclamation calling a special session of the legislature to meet in this city Tuesday next, Oct. 1. As the reason for his action he says that, under the present condition of the law, the fight managers are liable to pull off the fight while the courts are rowing over it.

Big Crowd at Springfield State Fair.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—An immense crowd of people poured into the State fair grounds yesterday. Exact figures as to the attendance are not yet obtainable, but it is estimated by the old-timers in the treasurer's office at 40,000 persons. It was Governor's day, and Governor Altgeld and members of his staff were entertained at luncheon by the State Board of Agriculture. Today is Springfield day, and the indications are that the attendance will be equal to, if not greater, than that of yesterday.

Schedule for the Temple Cup.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 27.—The schedule for the Temple cup game was arranged last night by telegraph between Manager Hanlon and Captain Tebeau. Directly after the close of the league season in New York Monday the Baltimore team will start for Cleveland, where games for the cup will be played on Oct. 2, 3 and 5. The teams will then come to Baltimore and play on Oct. 7, 8 and 9. If necessary to play the seventh game of the series the date will be selected later.

The Last Spike Driven.

South McAlester, I. T., Sept. 27.—The last spike has been driven in the Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf road, connecting South McAlester and Oklahoma city. The road is now complete from Wister, I. T., to El Reno, O. T., a distance of 240 miles. The first through train was a coal train. Double daily passenger trains will be put on Oct. 15, at which time a grand excursion will be run from Fort Smith, Ark., to Oklahoma City.

CHIPPEWA FALLS GETS THE PLUM.

State School For the Feeble Minded Located

ONE BALLOT ALL THAT WAS NEEDED.

Wausau and Marinette Were Not In the Fight—Congregational Convention at Appleton Closes and the Missionary Meeting Begins—Fatal Accidents at Baraboo and Ripon—Forest Fires Raging.

Madison, Sept. 27.—[Special]—Chippewa Falls is to have the new State School for the Feeble Minded, it being decided by the board of control last night. The report of Professor Henry on the sites at Chippewa Falls, Marinette and Wausau, was read, and Chippewa Falls chosen by a vote of three to two, and then made unanimous. Professor Henry said the Chippewa Falls site was the most ideal one for a state institution that he had ever seen.

Appleton Convention Closes.

Appleton, Sept. 27.—[Special]—The meeting of the Wisconsin Congregationalists closed last night, and the session of the Woman's board of missions began this morning.

Accidental Shooting at Ripon.

Ripon, Sept. 27.—[Special]—Ed. Rannels, of this place, was shot and instantly killed last night by a companion who was fooling with a revolver.

Fatal Accident at Baraboo.

Baraboo, Sept. 27.—[Special]—John Westburn, of this city, was thrown from a buggy this morning, receiving an internal rupture, from the effects of which he died.

Wisconsin Forest Fires.

Manitowish, Wis., Sept. 27.—Information was received from Kellerville, fourteen miles from here, of dangerous forest fires raging four miles north of there. The fire started several days ago in the woods of Joseph Pischler, and so far over half a mile has burned. The fire is one-half mile in width, and is not yet under control, although all the farmers in the vicinity are fighting it hard. They have moved all their grain and household goods away in case their buildings burn. Advice received from Tisch Mills, fourteen miles from here and several miles east of Kellerville, say fires started in the woods there and destroyed much property.

Twenty-six Men in Peril.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 27.—The steamer Cumberland, towing the schooner B. F. Bruce, both laden with coal for Milwaukee, has not been heard from since passing the straits of Waukegan early last Sunday morning. It is feared that both have gone down. The steamer carried a crew of eighteen men, and the schooner eight men.

CHINA'S WAR LESSON.

How the Late Unpleasantness in the Orient Affected Trade.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The department of state is in receipt of a report on the trade of China for 1894 prepared by the secretary of the British legation at Peking. The most remarkable feature of this trade for the year is found in the facts that, notwithstanding the Japanese war and many other untoward circumstances, good results were obtained and that a promising revival of commercial prosperity has set in. Both exports and imports show an advance and the customs revenue was increased by every division of trade with the one exception of Indian opium. The receipts from the exports exceeded the maximum collected during the most prosperous days of the tea trade.

New Jersey Democrats Nominate.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 27.—New Jersey's democratic party met in state convention here yesterday and nominated Chancellor Alexander E. McGill for governor on the first ballot. There was practically no opposition to the nomination. The platform adopted reaffirms the democratic national platform adopted in Chicago in 1892, and cordially indorses the administration of President Cleveland. It says: "The battle against a system formed in violation of self-evident laws of political economy has been won. The lesson of the cause and effect has been thoroughly learned, and we are willing to abide by the decision of an intelligent people, who are now entering upon a period of prosperity that will prove both substantial and enduring." A constitutional amendment is advocated in the platform to render impossible the legalization of gambling in any form.

Old Officers Re-elected.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27.—An attempt yesterday on the part of E. C. Gridley, of Duluth, to get expression of provisional disapproval from the Deep Waterways association convention of the Chicago drainage canal project on the ground that it might alter lake levels was a total failure. The committee on nominations presented its recommendations for the re-election of the old officers and the election of the several members of the executive board. The report was promptly adopted. Minneapolis asked that the next convention be held there. The invitation will be answered later.

MAY WANT TO RENT OUR NEW ROLLER

MILTON PEOPLE INTERESTED IN GOOD ROADS.

All Are Not Satisfied With the Present System and Think That a Change Would be a Good Thing—Death of Ira Ames at Lake Koshkonong—County News.

Milton may want to rent our steam roller and stone crusher. The people of that village and township have always been advocates of good roads, but although the work is done under regulations that bind the commissioner and supervisors, there has been considerable fault finding as to the manner in which the work has been done and the material used. However, the people argue, that when an appropriation specifies where the material shall be taken from and the amount to be expended, it leaves the supervisors no option in the matter and if they in their best judgment decide not to expend the funds appropriated, the next town meeting is quite apt to set aside their recommendation and repeat the appropriation. Thus there is considerable opposition to the present system, and in referring to the matter the Telephone says:

"We feel satisfied that if taxpayers would drive over the highways and investigate the results from appropriations already expended and the projects being engineered for the future, they would negative further omnibus propositions, end the practice of paying for clay, stone and sand when good gravel should be used, and if money is to be expended in improving the highways go at the work in a business like manner. The city of Janesville has a stone crusher and roller and perhaps the town authorities might secure the use of these indispensable adjuncts for successful road building for a reasonable price for use next season. Milton has good roads now, and in their betterment, in the years to come, the taxpayers' money should be more judiciously expended the end that she may have the best highways in the country."

THE NEWS OF MILTON JUNCTION

Death of Ira Ames at Lake Koshkonong—Other News Notes.

Milton Junction, Sept. 27—Ira Ames who was well known in Rock county, died at his home near Lake Koshkonong and was buried last Sunday. Mrs. S. L. Crandall left for her home in Mazomanie Monday night. Earl Coon of Janesville, visited in town Thursday. Mrs. Vanlone and Mrs. McClafferty spent Wednesday at Hebron. Mrs. Nellie Clark Sherman and children, of La Prairie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Waterman a part of last week. Mrs. J. C. Lane, of Milwaukee, spent a portion of this week with Milton relatives. R. W. Brown returned from his eastern trip Wednesday.

LIMA HAD A BUSY WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown Sorely Afflicted—Storm Did Damage—Personal Gossip.

Lima, Sept. 27.—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown who has been quite sick is better. Quite a number of Lima people attended the Elkhorn fair Wednesday and Thursday. Among those who went were D. H. Jenkins, O. E. Truman, Fred Gould, Fred Kutz and family and D. Collins. Mr. A. Ellick is quite sick. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Drake welcomed a baby boy to their home last Thursday morning. Miss Ella Barker is visiting in Elkhorn. George Warren and wife, of Janesville; Fred Warren, of Chicago, and Lizzie Donaldson, of Torant, were at Mrs. H. J. Bacon's Sunday. Last Sunday's wind storm did considerable damage here. Mr. Traver's barn was blown over, also H. J. Bullock's windmill. A large locust tree fell on Ella Stillman's house, but no damage was done. Mrs. Cowles and Will are visiting Mrs. McLane in La Grange. Rev. Thayer and family visited among their Lima friends the first of the week. Reese & Anderson received a car load of coal Thursday.

HOG CHOLERA ABOUT SHAPIERE

Farmers Are Selling All the Animals That They Can That Are Well

Shapiere, Sept. 27.—The hogs are still having the cholera. Farmers are selling all that they can that are all right. This part of the country is in need of some rain very much. Mrs. Resigee is home from California. A good many of our people went to the Elkhorn fair on Thursday. Threshing is about finished in this vicinity, for this year. The funeral of John Knipsheld was held on Wednesday, September 25 at 10 o'clock at the Catholic church in Beloit a large number of the Woodmen followed him to his last resting place and the pall bearers were Charles Rice, Charles Kemmerer, Phil Golden, Martin Uehling, Charles McElinflein and E. P. Bostwick.

N. B. ROBINSON PLANS AN OPENING

Banquet Will Be Served to the Public Tomorrow Afternoon and Evening

Brilliantly lighted rooms, tasteful floral decorations, and a banquet table laden with choice viands will be the features of the grand opening to be given by N. B. Robinson & Co., at their wholesale liquor store, 16 West Milwaukee street tomorrow from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 to 10 in the evening, and to which you are cordially invited. The banquet will be spread in the rooms on the second floor and the favorable reputation of this house and its popular proprietor, is an assurance that nothing will be left undone that will add to the enjoyment of the guests. Rentschler Brothers will furnish the flowers, "Con" McDonald will do the catering, and the host will do the rest. The menu will be as follows:

Consomme with Toast,
Celery,
Chicken Salad, Potato Salad,
Spanish Olives,
Pressed Roast Beef, Sliced Ham,
Cold Chicken and Jelly,
Hot Rolls, Quaker Bread.

MUCH CALL FOR CHEAP BREAD

Local Bakers Say It is a Sign of Hard Times.

"It is surprising," remarked a local baker this morning, "the number of calls we have for cheap bread or what is known among the bakers as the 'stale' bread. Bread is styled stale, when it is two days old and is sold at half price or two leaves for five cents. It is not bought entirely by the poor class of people," he continued, "for my trade is mostly with people of means. Many like bread better when it is old enough to be firm but nevertheless I attribute it mostly to hard times."

PARSON WASN'T PAID FOR HIS PREACHING

JANESVILLE DOESN'T APPRECIATE EVANGELISTS.

Rev. A. E. Robb Says Street Collections Were Small, 'Cottage Meeting Audiences' Lukewarm and Church Refused to Open their Doors—Will Go to Beloit From Here.

Rev. A. E. Robb, of Kalamazoo, says that Janesville people do not appreciate college bred colored evangelists and he and his companion, Miss Mattie Boyer, of Indianapolis, are now planning to leave the city. Since coming to town Mr. Robb has been treated very kindly he says by people who have been interested in his good work, but at the same time he has been unable to awaken interest enough to make the financial end of the business a success.

"You see," remarked Mr. Robb "the first few evenings in the city I preached upon the streets, but later on the good people took an interest in my case and invited me to hold 'cottage meetings' at their homes, which I have done, mostly among families of the First ward. My object when I came here was to get a hall, but the rents were so high that I could not afford it."

Couldn't Get a Church.

"Then I appealed to the church people for the use of the churches, but I have been refused by all the societies I approached. I think it about time I was moving to some other place where people appreciate my services more than they do in Janesville."

Mr. Robb is a well educated man and says he has traveled all over the United States and taken a full course of study at one of the leading colleges at Indianapolis. He has lectured in a great many cities, but says he has never been given such a cold reception as he received in the city of Janesville.

"The day has come when principle, not color, makes the man," he says, but Janesville people do not seem to appreciate the fact.

Miss Mattie Boyer, who is traveling with Rev. Robb, has an exceptionally fine voice, and at one time was known as one of the leading singers of the state of Indiana, he says. Miss Boyer is not well satisfied with her "campaign," and will return to her home as soon as she can make money enough. Mr. Robb will hold a "cottage meeting" at the home of Mrs. Peters tonight and remain over Sunday. Beloit will probably be his next stopping place.

"DAY OF ATONEMENT" IS HERE

Janesville Jews Will Observe the Holiday By Closing Their Stores.

The Sabbath beginning at sunset this evening is the Sabbath of Sabbath in the Jewish calendar. It is generally known by the name "Day of Atonement," and as such is the holiest of the year. Janesville Jews will observe the day.

THE PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT.

W. H. SARGENT Post at G. A. R. hall.

SPECIAL drill of the Janesville Light Infantry.

ROYAL Neighbors of America: Regular meeting.

ANNIVERSARY celebration at the First M. E. church.

The Good Templars will hold their regular meeting.

Its Most Attractive.

People who are obliged to ride in different kinds of vehicles around the country, are not a few. This class of people as a general thing don't care particularly about the fine points and appearance of their rig. But the masses who ride for pleasure, the man who keeps a horse and buggy as a luxury, usually makes his turnout as attractive as possible. Look up and down the street of an evening and notice the different buggies. Its no trouble at all to pick out the Hennes. They always appear the best. Curves are more graceful, etc. You make no mistake with a Henney. F. A. Taylor.

Running No Chances.

You take no chances when you buy shoes of us. If they fail to give proper service we are here to make them satisfactory. We guarantee the wear of every shoe we sell. Could you ask for more? Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

BAND DANCE PROVES A SUCCESS

Good Sized Crowd Made Merry at the Armory Last Evening.

About seventy-five couples attended the dance at the Armory, last evening, given by the Imperial Band. The management worked hard to make it a pleasant affair for those present, and their efforts were crowned with success. Smith's orchestra of seven pieces furnishing excellent music. The arrangement committee consisted of Dr. Spencer and Al. Kheff, while the floor was in charge of Fred Whetmore, Lewis Pressler, Joseph Harvey and Charles Kneff.

GRAFTING FROG SKIN ON A BURN

Effort to Replace the Cuticle on Rev. Mr. Feville's Hands.

The experiment has been made of grafting frog skin onto the hands and wrists of the Rev. John Faville who was so badly burned at Appleton. The object is to encourage the healing process. The frog skin will be absorbed and replaced by natural skin if the experiment proves successful and will not remain as in the case of grafting human skin. It is impossible to determine yet whether the burns will result in permanent injury to the hands but the Janesville friends of Mr. Faville hope not.

BIG CROWD PLEASSED WITH "ALI BABA"

PRODUCTION WAS ALL THAT WAS CLAIMED.

Henderson's Company Gave Janesville Theatre Goers The Worth of Their Money at the Myers Grand Last Evening—Scenic Effects Were Wonderful and the Music Good.

"Ali Baba" received its first production in Janesville at the Myers Grand last evening and was much enjoyed by a good sized audience. Ezra Kendall, of "A Pair of Kids" fame, and John J. Burke are the stars of the company and the scenic effects were something wonderful. No one who has read the delightful tales of the Orient contained in the book of the "Arabian Nights," can forget the adventures of Ali Baba, the poor woodcutter, the perfidy of Cassin, his rich brother, the bravery of Morgiana, the slave girl, or the audacity of the forty robbers, who made life a burden to the good citizens of that haunted city, Bagdad.

Of course the "Ali Baba" as presented departs somewhat from the original story. Extravaganza is an elastic vehicle, and if the manager's idea is that the thieves are the really virtuous characters of the piece, there is no difficulty in making them. The crew with which "Ali Baba" measures swords with in this instance is a very good looking, gaily attired and merry one. The thieves are all pretty girls, of course, and they spend a good deal more time warbling lightsome barcaroles and ballads than they do in thieving.

The harrowing incident of the final par-boiling in oil is dispensed with, and a more agreeable coup is substituted of petrifying them into semblances of marble statues. The environment of the story is most sumptuous, Artist Frederick Dangerfield having expended his best efforts on it. In the progress of the play, there are shown successively "The Heights of Bagdad," "Ali Baba's Humble Home," a panorama of a trip through tropic woods, the exterior of the cave of forty thieves, with a mystic effect of moonlit shadows, shadowy nooks, gruesome crags, the illuminated interior of the cave, Ali Baba's garden, and the transformation, entitled "The Birth of the Butterfly." The dresses worn throughout the piece are bewildering in color.

There are three Terpsichorean features in the piece, "The Dante Oriental," "The Danse Diabolique," and "The Grand Ballet of Jewels." The corps de ballet led by four premiers dancers, Martha Irmier, Signor Biancifiori, Hulda Irmier and Hilda Macri. There are many favorites in the cast. Among them are Ezra Kendall, John Burke, William Broderick, John Cain, Belle Black, Allene Crater, Bessie Lynch and many others.

Ali Baba was good, and Manager Stoddard is to be commended for securing so fine an attraction.

BEAUTY.

HOW TO INCREASE IN WEIGHT AND OTHERWISE IMPROVE ONE'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

Every normally constituted man and woman wants to look well. This is natural and right. We have little sympathy for those people who through indolence or gluttony have permitted themselves to take on too much flesh. They know that by living abstemiously and taking plenty of exercise they can get back to their normal weight.

We do however have a great deal of sympathy for those poor, pale, thin sufferers who either have no appetite or else whose food distresses them to such a degree that they are forced to live on a most frugal diet.

"Going into a decline." How often do we hear this expression. What does it mean? It means that people are losing flesh, growing thin, wasting.

Their trouble arises from the fact that they are unable to digest sufficient food and when the stomach is out of order and fails to do its proper work, foods are worse than useless. They simply ferment in the stomach and fill the system with poisonous principles.

What these people need is something that will digest their food after it has been eaten, and it is in just such cases that the Digestive Cordial as made by the Mount Lebanon Shakers is proving remarkably successful.

It is so prompt in its action that a sense of relief almost immediately follows the first dose, and a rapid increase in weight is soon noted.

The Shakers have issued an interesting pamphlet which may be obtained upon inquiry at any drug store.

TRUSTING WOMEN.

THEIR CONFIDENCE OFTEN LEADS TO SUFFERING.

An Ohio Woman's Experience, as Here Related, is Interesting to Every American Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

It is a very sad fact that the more a woman trusts to the skill of her physician in treating her female complaints, the longer she is apt to suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham fully realized this fact when she commenced that exhaustive study that has enabled the women of the world to help themselves. She discovered the source of female complaints, and produced the Vegetable Compound, which is their absolute cure.

When such testimony as the following is given, the woman who thinks should act quickly, and no longer permit herself to trust to incompetent doctors. The Vegetable Compound is sold by all druggists, and every woman should have it.

"The doctors had told me that unless I went to the hospital and had an operation performed I could not live. I had falling, enlargement, and ulceration of the womb."

"I was in constant misery all the time; my back ached; I was always tired. It was impossible for me to walk far or stand long at a time. I was surely a wreck. I decided that I would give your Compound and Sanative Wash a trial."

"I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used two packages of Sanative Wash, and I am now almost well. I am stouter and healthier than I have ever been in my life. My friends and neighbors and the doctors are surprised at my rapid improvement. I have told them all what I have been taking."—MRS. ANNETTA BICKMEIER, Bellaire, Belmont Co., O.

Did you Ever Fall Over a Precipice, Or hold up the Washington Monument on the pit of your stomach—in a dream? Did you ever wake up in a cold sweat caused by some horrid phantasm? If so, the wisest thing that you could have done to renew your slumber undisturbed by the nightmare, would have been to take some Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which would have tranquilized you and relieved the indigestion, which was, perhaps, the author of your hideous dream. Indigestion, nightmare, indigestion are easily remedied by Hostetter's Bitters. Resort to it, also, if you are troubled with chills and fever, liver or kidney trouble, constipation, neuralgia or rheumatism. If you have lost your appetite don't go to the expense of advertising for it, but take the Bitters. Then will "good digestion wait on appetite and health on both." Just before retiring is a very suitable time to swallow a wine-glassful.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. C. D. Stevens.

MALE AND FEMALE.

But the Magistrate Who Was to Marry Them Couldn't Tell.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning two young people in bifurcated garments entered Justice Murphy's office in the city hall and asked to be joined in matrimony, says Chicago Tribune. The justice said he would be very much pleased, but asked: "Where is the young lady?" Then he discovered his mistake. The young woman laughed good naturedly at the justice's mistake, while he hid his blushes behind the marriage license, which authorized Eva Mae Christen, aged 19 years, and George W. Clarke, aged 21 years, to wed.

Their costumes yesterday were exactly alike, both of gray tweed. The bride wore a white shirt waist under a Norfolk jacket, a white silk Windsor tie, and leggings to match the costume. The groom wore a white sweater and their peaked caps were identical.

"This is not the first case of bloomers we have had here in connection with a marriage license," said Clerk Salmonson yesterday. "About three months ago a couple came here in bloomers, but in that case the girl asked the questions and took the papers."

After the ceremony the bride's attendant, Miss Rogers, confidentially informed Justice Murphy she was soon to wed and was having an elaborate pair of bloomers fashioned for the occasion. The bridal party mounted their wheels immediately after the ceremony and went bowling merrily down toward Michigan avenue.

Her Center Stand Has Sprouted. Mrs. Church, living in Clinton, Mo., has a curiosity in the shape of a center stand. About two months ago Mrs. Church purchased a rustic center stand, nicely trimmed and varnished, that she placed in her room, and recently she noticed that sprouts had started from the stand legs, which are now about three or four inches in length. Mrs. Church has placed each leg of the stand in saucers of water, and will keep the curiosity as long as possible.

SAY, why don't you try DeWitt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small but do the work. C. D. Stevens.

A Conditional Reward. Woman—My husband has disappeared, and may be dead. I want to offer a reward for his body. Chief of Police—Yes, madame. A description will be needed, and this, with the reward, will no doubt prove effective. He may be alive, you know, in which case we may soon be able to return him to you. Woman—I shan't pay a cent of reward unless he is returned dead, just remember that.

The Uttermost Motive. "Say, Swipesy's gone." "Where?" "Dey t'ink 'e's kidnapped." "How? How? Who'd swipe such a kid?" "Dat's all you know 'bout it. He swallowed a fi-dollar piece yistiddy."

A Thatcher. Second-hand furnace, in the best of repair, goes to some one very cheap. Lowell Hardware Co.

Some Queer Poisons. The Bombay Government's analyst has been investigating the various poisons that are used in India, and in the course of his report he disposes of the old notion that pounded glass is the most deadly kind of substance you can mix with the food of any one against whom you entertain a particular grudge. "Pounded glass," he says, "is a most useful poison." He does not, of course, mean by this that it assists digestion or can safely be recommended as a pick-me-up after a hard day's work, but that it is useful in the sense of not doing very much harm to the person whose life is aimed at and leading very easily to the detection of the would-be murderer. If it is pounded until it becomes very fine, it causes merely slight discomfort and can be detected in the first mouthful of the food with which it is mixed. The same may be said, it appears, of diamond dust, tiger's whiskers, chopped hair, and such like. After all, two pennorth of blackbeetle-killer is as good—or as bad—as anything, and you can get this at the nearest grocer's. Where, I wonder, would you have to go in search of tiger's whiskers or diamond dust?

Salvation on Horseback.

The Salvation Army of Denver has organized a cavalry corps of young women. ## PAINT cracks.—It often costs more to prepare a house for repainting that has been painted in the first place with cheap ready-mixed paints, than it would to have painted it twice with strictly pure white lead, ground in pure linseed oil.

Strictly Pure White Lead

forms a permanent base for repainting and never has to be burned or scraped off on account of scaling or cracking. It is always smooth and clean. To be sure of getting strictly pure white lead, purchase any of the following brands:

"Southern," "Red Seal," "Collier," "Shipman."

For Colors.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors, a one-pound can to a 25-pound keg of Lead and mix your own paints. Saves time and annoyance in matching shades, and insures the best paint that is possible to put on wood.

Send us a postal card and get our book on paints and color-card, free; it will probably save you a good many dollars.

A Benefit On Overcoats

Overcoats for everybody, man, boy or child, made of the best cloth. They fit and are sewed the same as tailor made clothing. Some shouters will charge you big prices for that class of goods if they are lucky enough to buy them. We quote a few prices. If they are not worth double the money we ask for them be kind enough to inform us we lie. A child's overcoat costs you $1.25, a boy's overcoat, fine as can be bought elsewhere for $6.50 goes for $3.50 and a man's overcoat for $5 or an ulster made fifty-two inches long for $2.50 at the popular clothing house, Rosenfeld, Janesville, open tomorrow from 5 to 11 p. m. only. Come then and be waited on. Ask for advertised goods, we have plenty of them. Rosenfeld.

Governor Stone's Proclamation.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 27.—Governor Stone issued a proclamation yesterday declaring that in view of the great importance of the conference of western states called to assemble at Topeka, Kan., on Oct. 1 next, he feels justified in urging upon the mayors of cities and presidents of various commercial bodies organized throughout the state to attend the conference, or to see to it that their cities and bodies are properly represented.

Declares Against Vivisection.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 27.—At the meeting of the American Humane association in this city yesterday the exhaustive report of the committee on vivisection was indorsed and a strong resolution put through condemning the attempts to establish penal colonies in America. John G. Shortall was re-elected president. Cleveland was chosen as the place for holding the next annual convention.

National Treasury Has a Surplus.

Washington, Sept. 27.—For the first time in some months the treasury will show a surplus this month. The receipts for the month to date are $23,539,814, an excess over current expenditures of $112,744. As the daily expenditure always diminishes toward the end of the month, no doubt is felt that each of the few remaining days of September will see some addition to the present surplus.

At Baltimore—

Baltimore.....1 0 2 1 6 *—10

Philadelphia.....1 0 0 0 0 0—1

The game between Brooklyn and Boston was postponed after the first half of the fourth inning on account of wet grounds. The score up to that time stood as follows: Brooklyn, 4; Boston, 0.

He Converted Her.

"It's all right, Mary," he said, patiently. "Go into politics and run for office if you want to. But remember one thing, the cartoonists'll be after you as soon as you're a candidate."

"I don't care."

"And they'll put your picture in the paper with your hair out of curl and your hat on crooked."

"Do you think they would do that?" she inquired, apprehensively.

"Of course. And they'll make your Paris gowns look like ten-cent calico and say that your seal skin coat is imitation."

"William," she said, after a thoughtful pause, "I guess I'll just stay right here and make home happy."—Cleveland Leader.

Man's Brutality.

Chattie—I hear that old De Cash is dead.

Chinnie—Yes, died yesterday, and his widow has retained me to contest his will.

Chattie—Eh? I always understood he intended to leave his young wife his entire fortune?

Chinnie—So he did; but it was on condition that she should not marry again.

Paris Dynamiter Sentenced.

Paris, Sept. 27.—Boutelle, the man who on Sept. 5 carried a cocoa tin containing chloride of potash and ordinary gunpowder into the vestibule of the Rothschild banking house in the Rue Laftite, where he was arrested as he was trying to ignite the compound from a cigarette, was yesterday sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Talmage Goes to Washington.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, has accepted the call to be co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. Dr. Talmage is to be co-pastor of the church of equal authority with Dr. Sunderland, and probably will preach one-half of the sermons, beginning Sunday evening Oct. 27.

Even if you don't buy to look throughout crockery department. The newly married people the people who are going to be married those who don't intend ever marrying cannot spend a little time to better advantage than the moments required to inspect our crockery department. We have a most complete stock of dishes, everything in the crockery line, and as to prices can make better figures than any one else in the city. You have no idea of the amount of china and glass goods we carry, and if you have any idea of buying, we can surely sell you. Lowell's Annex.

WORSE THAN USELESS.

Do Not Use Cathartics For Indigestion.

The commonly used remedies are worse than useless, as they do not remove the cause. Cathartics are injurious, for although they move the bowels for a time, their action weakens the digestion and thus increases the difficulty they are intended to cure.

Persons using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will not be disappointed as their use not only properly digests the food, but gives proper assimilation and cures constipation by producing the proper quantity of bile.

The fact that they are used so largely by physicians is a great point in their favor, and many physicians treat their cases of indigestion almost entirely by these tablets or the same ingredients. The only difference being that when dyspepsia apply to a physician for them he charges you two or three prices for them besides his advice. Whereas if you go to your druggist he will sell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for only 50 Cents per box.

They may also be had by mail by enclosing price to The F. A. Stuart Co., chemists, Marshall, Mich.

KEPT CUPID AT WORK FOUR LONG YEARS

JANESVILLE GIRLS WEDDING WAS DELAYED.

Finally, However, the Gentle God of Love Triumphed and the License for L. Munger of Chicago and Miss Florence Ferguson of This City Was Issued Yesterday.

It takes more than parental objections and hard times to keep a Janesville girl from getting married when she gets her "heart set on it," as is illustrated in the case of Miss Florence Ferguson. Miss Ferguson is the daughter of C. W. Ferguson, the insurance man, who now makes his headquarters in Milwaukee.

For a number of years the Fergusons lived on North River street near the Knipp brewery. Four years ago L. Munger came here to attend Valentine's Telegraph school. He met Miss Ferguson and they fell in love. But cupid's course was not helped along by Miss Ferguson's parents. They frowned on the embryo telegraph operator and forbade their daughter to see him. But their love did not die because it was the parental desire that it should. On the other hand, objections to the match only seemed to add fuel to the flame.

Then Hard Times Came. Finally Munger decided to give up the telegraphing business and seek a job. He went to Chicago and secured work on a Pullman car as conductor. Then his prospects were pretty good, and he and Miss Ferguson had their plans all made to don the matrimonial yoke. But it was not to be. Just as they got their arrangements all made, Munger lost his job on the Pullman car, and the wedding had to be postponed again. However, the couple did not forget each other, but lived in hopes of better days. The time seems to have come now, however, for the Chicago Times-Herald this morning publishes in the list of names of people to whom marriage licenses have been granted in that city, L. Munger, of Chicago, age 23, and Florence Ferguson, of Janesville, aged 23, so Cupid, after four years of steady plugging, seems to have triumphed after all.

Wray-Williams. J. Glenn Wray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wray of this city, and Mrs. Clara May Williams of Chicago, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lila L. Williams, 162 Center street, Chicago, yesterday. The groom was born and raised in Janesville and is well and favorably known. He took the electrical engineering course in the state university, and is now an employee of a Chicago telephone company. Many Janesville friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Wray long life and happiness.

POLE DROPPED AND TEAM RAN.

O. N. Dutton has a Runaway Accident on Milton Avenue, But Escapes Injury.

O. N. Dutton and his daughter, Miss Hattie Dutton, were thrown from a buggy this morning and narrowly escaped injury. The neck yoke gave way, letting the pole drop and the horses made a short turn. They upset the buggy but were stopped by striking a tree in front of Judge Patterson's new house. The buggy was damaged to the extent of five dollars and Miss Dutton was bruised somewhat, but except for that no damage was done.

WILL TRAVEL NORTH BY WAGON.

An Outfit Being Made Here For Frank Burdick of Indian Ford.

Frank K. Burdick of Indian Ford, is having a covered wagon made in this city, in which he and his family will live for a few weeks, they expecting to leave overland next week for the northern part of the state, where, if the country suits them, they will reside in the future.

His Hickory Nuts Gone.

Supervisor William Brinkman, of Afton, is out with "blood in his eye." And why shouldn't he be? His winter supply of nicely shucked hickory nuts, which represented many days of toil in gathering has disappeared. He found this out when he went to the barn with his two children to give them a surprise, and he and Henry Drafiel and other Afton citizens talk of organizing a vigilance committee.

Don't Forget

That if you don't be delayed in getting your stove set up, it will be necessary to get them out of the warehouse at once. As we have before said, we have 450 stoves in storage, and are selling many new ones, all of which must be set up this fall and that right soon. Get ready for the heater. Lowell Hardware Co.

A Candle

Might be put under a bushel, but it's an impossibility to get one of our decorated stands or banquet lamps in this small space. The burners used on them all are the best, and the entire lamp is put up in excellent shape. We beat the record on prices. Lowell's Annex.

Three Casks

Of crockery were unloaded to us this morning. We haven't had time to unpack them yet, but will soon and let you know what they contain. Lowell's Annex.

New Line

That we have just added to our stock is window shades. They came this morning, and the lot includes all sizes. Lowell's Annex.

JOHN RILEY IS SENT TO WAUPUN PRISON

BELOIT BURGLAR GOT A FIF- TEEN MONTHS SENTENCE.

Man Who Robbed Burger's Meat Market Pleads Guilty and Takes His Medicine—Attendants From the Mendota Insane Asylum Here Looking for Thomas Trenwith.

John Riley of Beloit, will now learn a trade at the expense of the great state of Wisconsin. Riley is the man who was caught in the act of robbing the cash drawer in John Burger's meat market, at Beloit, some days ago.

Burger heard Riley at work, and rushing into the shop punched Riley under the ear, knocking him clear across the room and scattering the stolen money all over the floor.

John Riley until City Marshal Appleby could be notified and Riley was arrested. The next day he was brought to Janesville and lodged in jail, the charge against him being burglary.

This morning he was brought before Judge Phelps in the municipal court, and said that he desired to plead guilty, which he did, and the court sentenced him to one year and three months in the state prison at Waupun, the first day of his confinement to be solitary.

Attendants Are After Trenwith.

Two attendants from the state hospital for the insane at Mendota, came to Janesville today in search of Thomas Trenwith, who was committed to that institution some time ago, but succeeded in making his escape. Trenwith is said to be at the home of his parents north of the city, so the two attendants left for Milton this morning, intending to go to the Trenwith home from that place. Trenwith has not been violent at all since his return, and has not carried out any of the threats he had made against the people in the vicinity, but the state authorities thought that he was better off in their charge, so they sent the attendants after him. Whether or not they found him was not known this afternoon, but local officers did not think they would have any trouble with him.

SALSMAN MET THE TRAIN ROBBERS

Janesville Traveling Man Was in the Waupaca Scrimmage.

T. J. Salsman, the traveling salesman, was on the train that was held up at Waupaca a few days ago. The passengers on his car, on hearing the racket, began to hide their valuables.

Mr. Salsman put his watch under the seat while his diamond stud and money were soon hidden in the bottom of his shoe, but after all his trouble the robbers made good their escape without molesting any of the passengers. Mr. Salsman returned home today.

DECLINES THE CALL TO A RICH CHURCH

REV. HALSEY WILL STAY IN JANESVILLE.

Court Street People Happy Over Their Pastor's Determination Not to Accept the Summons to a Minnesota Pulpit—Gain of Sixty in Membership This Year.

Court Street church will not lose Rev. Dr. Halsey, as many had feared. Dr. Halsey returned from Minnesota this morning, having spent two nights on the cars. He would talk but little of the call extended to him. Members of Court Street church were not so close-mouthed, however, and were loud in praise of their pastor.

"The opening in Minnesota was a church that pays $2,500, and would be willing to pay $3,000," said a Court Street trustee. "Besides this a furnished house is provided. The church is one of the strongest in the Minnesota conference. Dr. Halsey was summoned to meet the bishops, and it looked very much as if he would be summoned to leave us, but his representations concerning the work to be done in Court Street were evidently effective. In one year Dr. Halsey's efforts have resulted in a net gain of sixty in membership. The church is now in excellent condition, and there is a general feeling that his transfer would be a severe blow. He has made many new friends by this proof that money is not what he is working for, and I am satisfied that he has strengthened himself in the eyes of the bishop as well."

At the meeting of the Court Street official board a few days ago, a unanimous call for the return of Mr. Halsey was drafted. The conference which meets in Racine next month, will undoubtedly grant the request.

DARKENED BY DEATH'S PALL.

Mrs. Clark Lyke.

Mrs. Maggie Lyke, wife of Clark Lyke, died at her home near the city yesterday afternoon. Her death is the third in the Austin family in five months, her father, John Austin, dying about five months ago, and her mother, a month ago. Mrs. Lyke was thirty years of age, and had been sick but a week, of typhoid fever. Six children survive. Mr. and Mrs. Lyke had been building a new house this summer on the farm willed to Mrs. Lyke by her father, and were almost ready to move in when she was taken.

Mrs. Lyke was in her thirty third year. She was born and reared in this county and became the wife of Clark Lyke about sixteen years ago. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock from the home of Mrs. Albert Schnell her sister on Milton avenue.

COLD WEATHER FASHIONS.

Trimings For Winter Hats—Capes and Gowns to Match.

A new idea for hats is an arrangement of wide lace that suggests a short veil caught up around the brim of the hat and extending to the back to make a curtain. Heavy ostrich tips, loops of ribbon and bunches of flowers complete the trimming. A stylish hat has a rather low, flat crown and a brim that closely resembles a shut up fan very slightly drawn apart, the plaitings being almost perpendicular, spreading at the edge and gathered very full around where they join to the crown. Ostrich plumes and fans of crimped silk are the trimming.

For autumn wear a gown of cloth, with a cape to match, the latter lined with changeable silk, is a fashionable and pleasing costume, especially when worn with a petticoat of the same kind of silk that lines the cape. Mastic cloth for capes, coats and gowns has now a great vogue.

Bandeaux are still seen in Paris, although their popularity, which has been much greater there than here, is beginning to wane. They become only very youthful faces, as in itself the fashion is one that is essentially old looking.

Hats and bonnets of shirred silk, net and lace are to be worn this fall and early winter.

Exceedingly rich and sumptuous materials are to be employed for fine wear this winter, magnificent as to color as well as fabric. Velvet, both plain, striped and damasked, will be very fashionable, while brocade and embroidered silks and silks striped with plush or showing a raised design will appear in great variety and at extravagant prices. Black silk goods are being brought out to an unusual extent, showing that black gowns are to be one of the features of the season.

A sketch is given of a little girl's gown of beige wool with rose spots. The plain skirt forms godets at the back. The full bodice has a square yoke of guipure surrounded by a plaited bertha of rose taffeta. The balloon sleeves terminate at the elbow under a band and choux of taffeta. The collar is also of taffeta, and a sash of taffeta with fringed ends is tied at the right side. A black felt hat trimmed with rose ribbon is worn with the gown.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

SLEEVES AND CAPES.

The Newest In Sleeves—Capes With and Without Hoods.

Some of the newest models show the sleeves shirred into a series of puffs. Others have the usual large puff, with a very close, wide band of shirring at the elbow, and deep frills falling over the arm. A new pattern has sleeves almost close fitting to the arm and three flounces of a cape shape sewed in at the armholes. Another sleeve has the top sewed in perfectly plain, or with just enough fullness to make it fit smoothly without drawing, and all the fullness gathered in at the front and back. This gives the baggy effect at the elbow, which seems to be the thing most desired. A novelty costume has the sleeves covered with braiding, either put on by hand or machine. There is a tendency toward setting in fancy sections at the top of the sleeves. One dress is of a silver gray peat do sole with pink silver embroidery in points set in at the sleeve tops. There are similar points falling from the belt. Another gown has sleeves almost as round as a football, and over them revers of very rich passementerie. Costumes with skirt, deep cuffs and vest, collar and revers of one material and sleeves and fitted body of a contrasting fabric are not uncommon.

TRAVELING WRAP.

Small cloth capes are worn, and even the double cape is seen, but the newest ones are those made with a capuchon, not of the pointed shape, but round and gathered at the edge. This hood falls over the shoulders and is lined with silk. A cape of mastic cloth, for instance, will have a ruche of changeable taffeta around the neck, and the capuchon, lined with taffeta, will have a similar ruche about the edge. The pointed hood is occasionally used, however, as is shown by the accompanying sketch of a traveling cloak of mastic cloth. It is close fitting behind and forms two large godets, but is straight in front and double breasted, fastening with two rows of horn buttons. A pelerine, falling in coquilles over the sleeves, covers the shoulders, and a pointed capuchon lined with plaid silk is extended toward the front to form a shawl collar. Both the pelerine and the front of the cloak are finished with stitched straps. The sleeves are large and fall open at the wrists.

A CRIMEAN GUN DUEL.

The Russians Were Chivalrous Enough to Admit Their Gun's Defeat.

While the flag of truce was flying a Russian officer of artillery went up to ask Sir Richard Airey if Gen. Dacres, commanding the English artillery, was on the ground. On Sir Richard answering in the negative the officer said: "Your sixty-eight-pounder gun that your people call Jenny is a beautiful gun, but we think we have one as good in that embrasure," pointing up to the mamelon, "and we would like to have a fair duel with her." Airey took up the challenge at once, and everything was arranged for 12 o'clock noon next day. When the time arrived all the batteries on both sides ceased firing. A large number of officers, French and English, were assembled at our lookout station, behind the twenty-one-gun battery, to look on, says a writer in an English paper. Our sailors' gun detachment mounted on their parapets and took off their hats, saluting the Russians. The Russians returned the compliment. The English gun was given the first shot as the senior gun; it struck the side of the Russian embrasure. Then they fired—a very good shot, too. The third shot from Jenny went clean through the Russian embrasure and up went two gabions. The blue jackets jumped up on their parapet and cheered, thinking they had beaten their opponents. Not a bit! A minute afterward down went the gabions and out came the Russian gun again. Several more shots were fired from both sides, all very good ones. Jenny got a nasty thump, but it did her no harm. At length, I think the seventh shot from our side, we saw the Russian gun knocked clean over. Our fellows cheered vociferously and the Russians mounted their parapet and took off their hats in acknowledgment of their defeat. All the batteries then opened again. Thus ended the great gun duel.

WOMEN are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look within twenty years as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. All druggists keep the "Discovery."

For Governor of Maryland.

John Edward Hurst, the Democratic candidate for governor of Maryland, is one of the largest wholesale dry goods merchants in the south and is also one of the richest men in Baltimore. He was born near Cambridge, Md., Oct. 21, 1832, and began his business career in Baltimore at the age of 17. Mr. Hurst is an ex-president of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, a director in the Baltimore board of trade, vice president of the National Exchange bank, a trustee of the Samuel Ready asylum and of Johns Hopkins university and a director in numerous financial institutions.

Lloyd Lowndes, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, is a prominent lawyer of Cumberland who has amassed a fortune in various business enterprises. He was born in Clarksburg, now West Virginia, Feb. 21, 1845, and is a graduate of Alleghany college, Meadville, Pa. He was admitted to the bar at Cumberland in 1867. In 1872 he was elected to congress by the Republicans of the Sixth Maryland district and served one term. Ever since then he has been prominent in the councils of his party in Maryland.

The Templars' New Chief.
Most Eminent Sir Warren La Rue Thomas, the new grand master of the Knights Templars of the United States, has been identified with Masonry for nearly 30 years and is considered one of the best Masonic jurists in the order. Sir Knight Thomas is about 50 years old and lives in Maysville, Ky. He stands 3 feet in his stockings and pulls down the scales at the 200 pound mark and is consequently an imposing figure when attired in the Masonic regalia. He was educated at Center college and has devoted 20 years of his existence to the life insurance business.

A Gubernatorial Candidate.
Judge W. I. Babb, Democratic candidate for governor of Iowa, is a native of the state and has lived in Mount Pleasant for 35 years. He served through the war in the Eighth Iowa cavalry and in 1866 was graduated from Iowa Wesleyan university. He was admitted to the bar in 1867 and soon attained high rank in his profession. He has twice been elected to the bench, is a prominent Freemason and an ardent Methodist. Judge Babb is 51 years old.

Says He Caught Jack the Ripper.
Dr. Forbes Winslow, who says he caught Jack the Ripper and incarcerated him in an English insane asylum, was a prominent figure in the recent medico legal congress at New York, and his paper on "Suicide as an Epidemic" created quite a sensation. Dr. Winslow is the founder of the British Hospital For Mental Diseases and is also attached to the leading hospitals of London as a specialist on insanity and mental and nervous disorders.

Item of Expense.

"It must be a heap of expense ter keep sech er lot er chickings," said Erastus Pinkley, as he stopped at the gate to cast a glance at Farmer Corn-tassel's poultry yard.
"Oh, not such a greddeal," replied Farmer Corn-tassel.
"What am de principal items ob expense?"
"Powder and shot." — Washington Star.

His Grounds.

Manager of Telegraph Company—You say you were a messenger boy for this company fifty-five years ago and was discharged for being too old?
Applicant—Yes, sir.
Manager—Then, upon what grounds do you ask for reinstatement now?
Applicant—Why, I'm in my second childhood. — N. Y. Journal.

In Sight.

"Ha, ha! ha, ha!" laughed the great detective. "I have them now."
For five days he had been on the trail, and had neither eaten nor slept. He had done nothing but drink.
Under the circumstances his joyous assertion that he had 'em bore the similitude of verity. — Indianapolis Journal.

Hadn't the Price.

He took her out to get ice cream.
His lovely freckled Kate.
He faltered when he read the sign:
"Cream twenty-five a plate."
— Cincinnati Enquirer.

NATURAL SIMPLICITY.

"Mrs. Jones is a woman of very simple tastes."
"Yes, I noticed that when—"
"You have never met her?"
"No, but I was introduced to her husband." — Boston Budget.

Load Dressing.

"What's all that racket in the next room?" asked Homewood, who was calling upon his friend Hiland.
"That's my brother Tom dressing to go out."
"Well, I've heard people say that Tom dressed loudly, but I did not realize it before." — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Had Seen a New Light.

Tramp — Yes'm, it's hard to break away from all yer bad habits at once; but I've given up some of 'em.
Lady—Which ones have you given up?
Tramp — Well, mum, I don't get shaved on Sunday any more. — Brooklyn Life.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.
Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for children. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produce immediate results. C. D. Stevens.

Gallant.

She—I'm glad you admire my gown, but I don't like it. It makes me look older than I am.
He (gallantly)—Oh, impossible, Miss Clara! — Penny Illustrated Paper.

THE FLY YOUNG MAN!

Isn't necessarily a tailored to order young man---He may be a young man who has got onto himself after many trials of tailored to order suits--but he is usually a reformed young man. He knows it is not necessary to pay high prices for fine wearing apparel---because he's become acquainted with our Pickwick tailoring system---He's not ashamed that our label is under his coat collar--He's got over that, for there are many things about the making of a suit that our tailors excel others in--although there's one thing they can beat us at. They can sometimes get twice and three times as much as we do for the identical cloth. We commence at $8.50 and have some up to $30.

OUR PICKWICK SUITS AND OVERCOATS !

have got the build of the best tailor-made garments. The average ready-made and the cheap made to order coat is rarely satisfactory. The seams rip, the buttons come off, the wadding settles in chunks between the lining and the outside and the shape IT WILL NOT KEEP. It is folly to buy the truck advertised, when with our tailoring system you can avoid all these discomforts. If you could buy high grade clothing made to fit your form and at a price no higher than is usually asked for the common ready made stuff, WOULD YOU? If you would we can show you in our Pickwick department, Suits and Overcoats from $10 to $25, that will be a credit for you to wear. The lining will be right, the button holes right and the most important part, the shape and making right. We have some especially fine overcoats and ulsters which are displayed in our show window. Stop and examine them. Any overcoat or ulster bought during balance of this month we will lay aside for you and make you a reduction of 10 per cent from price. Why not pick out what you want now.

Our Flannel Night Robes, cut 56 and 60 inches long, $1.00.
